We are proud to announce the first SWISS CYBER RISK RESEARCH CONFERENCE, on May, 20th 2016 (from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.).

The event will be held at the Swiss Tech Convention Centre, EPFL, in Lausanne.

This conference brings together researchers, academics and stakeholders in the field of cyber risks in Switzerland. High-level national and international speakers will present you their cutting-edge research on cyber risks and engage in insightful discussions on future developments in the area. Moreover, this event will mark the launch of the Swiss Cyber Research Initiative.

Are you interested in attending the conference? If so, please fill in the registration form on our homepage, www.scrrc.ch, where you will also find detailed information about the programme and our national and international speakers.

This event could be of relevance to other members of your organisation; we would kindly ask you to forward this flyer to anyone else who you think may be interested.

For further questions, please do not hesitate to contact our organisation team via email at:
